

custom illustration/
special institutional projects

logos / identity:

right: in-house branding development. As in-house designer, provided final name and graphic identity for unique on-campus research institute that united major state landholders / managers with University researchers and outside partners.

custom poster art:

above: illustration for University special guest speaker event right: illustration for University's first "Research Open House" event intended to encourage both interdepartmental relationships and the tech transfer process

original University Press Release Art

provide complex custom illustration and design to showcase University research achievements to the world through major print and online media outlets.

University productions:
voiceover and film

provide voiceover / narration talent (as well as 3D animation and graphics) for award-winning University-produced research documentaries, most recently for a 2012 NSF-funded science special broadcast in numerous locations nationwide (www.athousandinvisiblecords.org)

Produced / Directed by DAN BOONE - First Assistant Director / Line Producer - RYAN BELNAP - Created with extensive cooperation of COTTONWOOD ECOLOGY GROUP - TOM WHITHAM - A NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY / IDEALAB production

above: press release illustration for new peer-reviewed climate change research.

left: illustration of new peer-reviewed research that weighs the ecological consequences of human-related drops in species diversity.

Victor O. Leshyk